VOLUME XII

John F. Kennedy Memorial High School has based its aims on the recognition that life is a continuing process in which students have the right and responsibility to grow physically,

intellectually,

emotionally,

culturally,

socially,

morally and religiously.

These aims are accomplished by helping the students to realize their call as Christian persons in society, and encouraging them to live their roles of service to self, to others, and to Almighty God.

TEARS AND

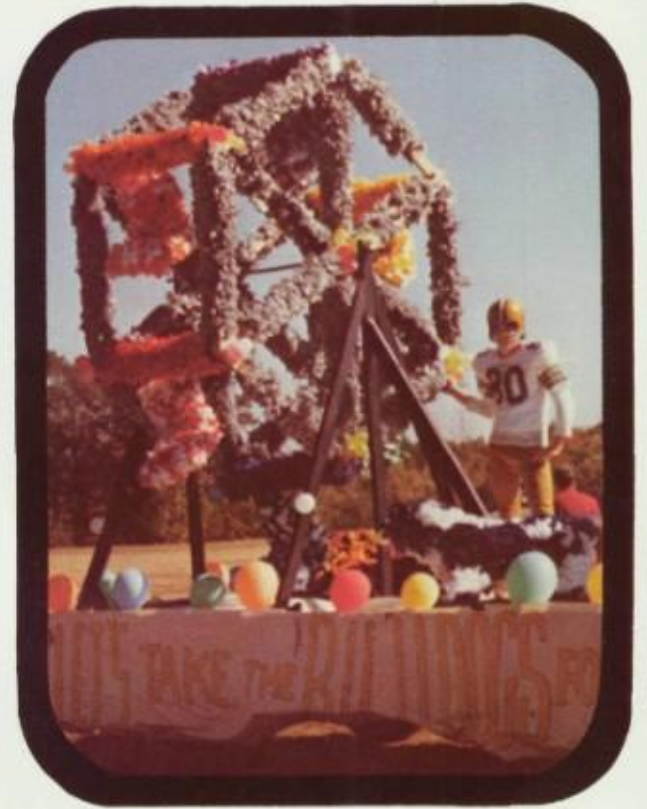

When night comes, the flower folds its petals and slumbers with Love, and at dawn, it opens its lips to receive the Sun's kisses, bespeckled by quick dartings of clouds which come, but surely go.

The life of flowers is hope and fulfillment and peace; tears and laughter.

The water disappears and ascends until it turns into clouds that gather upon the hills and valleys; and when it meets the breeze, it falls down upon the fields and joins the brook that sings its way toward the sea.

The life of clouds is a life of farewell and a life of reunion; tears and laughter.

KAHLIL GIBRAN

LAUGHTER

Your joy is your sorrow unmasked.

And the selfsame well from which your laughter rises was oftentimes filled with your tears.

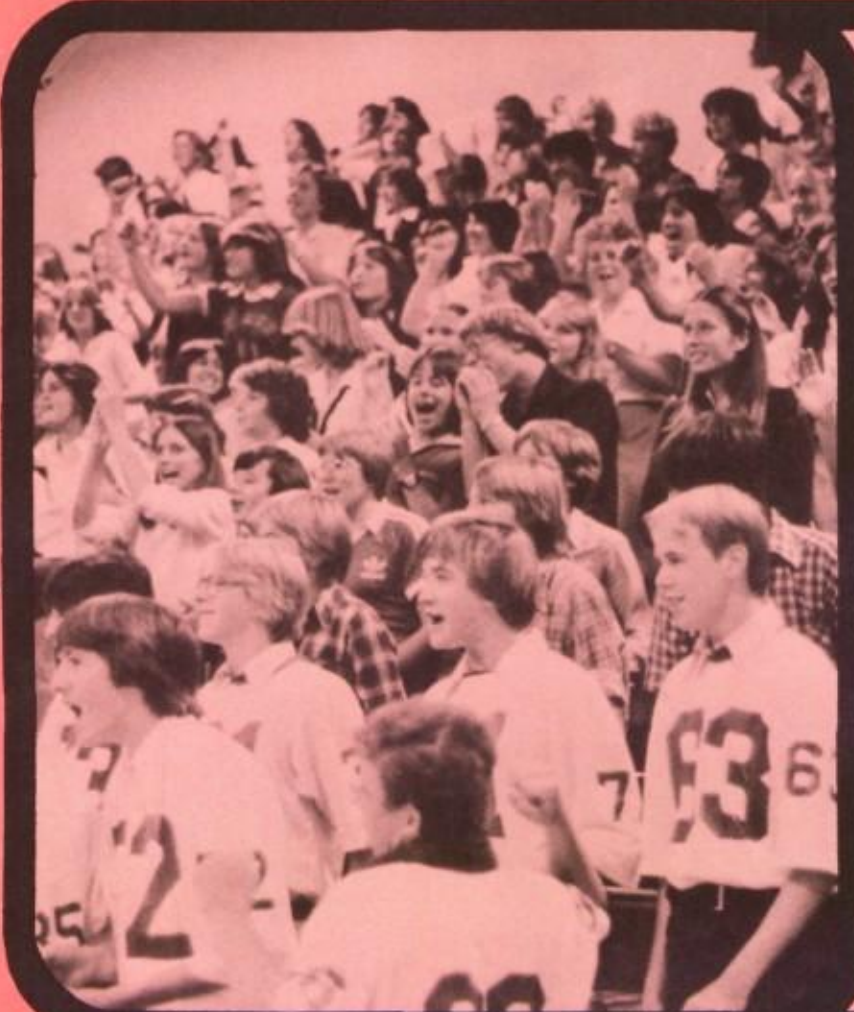

And how else can it be?

The deeper that sorrow carves into your being, the more joy you can contain.

When you are joyous, look deep into your heart and you shall find it is only that which has given you sorrow that is giving you joy.

When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight.

ACTIVITIES

The laughter of man is the contentment of God.

Laughter is the shortest distance between two people.

We must laugh before we are happy, for fear of dying without laughing at all.

Tears, idle tears, I know not what they mean.
Tears from the depths of some divine despair.

Sweet tears! The awful language, eloquent of infinite affection, far too big for words.

For God hath not granted to woeful mortals even laughter without tears.

ACTIVITIES

SPIRIT WEEK

Spirit Week was a period of lively, vigorous competition between the four classes. The week's highlight was the pep assembly which included the awarding of the spirit stick to the senior class and the annual pie throwing contest. The climax came on Saturday with the grand parade of student floats. Seniors secured first place, but the entire student body displayed much support and enthusiasm.

JFK . . . ASSEMBLIES

Traditional pep assemblies at JFK generate enthusiasm from the student body as well as the faculty. One assembly featured a hypnotist, Tom DeLuca; he proved to be very interesting. Other assemblies included competitive games between the student body and the faculty.

Jo and Jerry Liberstein

JFK . . . SKI TRIP

"Head for the Mountains" seemed to be the spirit slogan for the JFK students as they traveled to Galena, Illinois for the first ski trip from Kennedy. Many students who left amateurs came back ready for the Olympic team. Mr. Liberstein, the daring moderator, commented that a good time was had by all. The students at JFK hope to go again next year.

CLOSE UP

For one week twelve students went to Washington, D.C. to learn how government works. Seminars and group workshops provided discussions on the executive, legislative and judicial branches. Two days were spent on Capitol Hill where students were able to sit in on the House and Senate sessions.

Moderators: Mr. McCauley and Mrs. Chaney

OPEN HOUSE

OPEN HOUSE provides an opportunity for prospective students and their parents to meet the administration, faculty, and students of JFK. Student guides gave tours so our guests could visit the departments to learn about the various academic programs and extra-curricular activities. Moderators Mr. McCauley and Mrs. Chaney appreciated the students' efforts for making OPEN HOUSE an enjoyable experience for all.

SPEECH TEAM

The Speech Team participated in the Christian Interscholastic Speech League. The team attended meets at Incarnate Word Academy, Cardinal Ritter and St. Mary's High Schools. Throughout the year the team won numerous awards. Two students attended the finalist meet at St. John the Baptist High School. Tom Davis won the first place trophy in extemporaneous speaking and Laura Muckerman won the third place trophy in poetry reading.

1st row: M. Molini, G. Spann, K. Kasper, J. Turney, K. Downes. 2nd row: R. Lacovoli, L. Muckerman, J. Meier, T. Younger, T. Davis, D. Brady, K. Weishaar.

5

Members of the John F. Kennedy High School team defeated a similar team from Bishop DuBourg High School in KSDK's "Newsquiz 5". The winning team consisted of sophomore Bob Berendzen, and seniors Don Baerveldt, Tom Davis, and Sue Crump. Junior Jenny Hall was the alternate. Faculty moderators were Terry McCauley and Tom Smith. Kennedy defeated DuBourg in a test of their knowledge of current events, and won a complete 30-volume set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

AMERICAN PROBLEMS CLASS

Signs and banners transformed the boys' gym as the 1980 Mock Convention got under way at Kennedy. This small scale replica of the National Democratic and Republican conventions would result in the students' and faculty's choice of a Republican and Democratic Presidential candidate. Amid banner waving, chairman speeches, and confetti throwing, the convention progressed. JFK's presidential nominees were both successfully elected on the first ballot. The Democratic nominee was President Jimmy Carter; the Republican nominee was Governor Ronald Reagan.

Ms. R. Bergschneider-Fr. H. Hauck

Doing good for others brings joy to the contributors as well. The Annual Faculty-Student Talent Show gives many the chance to learn this simple truth. Those who get on stage, who work behind the scenes, and who attend the performances are treated to a unique chance to see the real talents and the sometimes courage of Kennedy Faculty and Students. Proceeds this year were contributed to the 100 Neediest Cases, Reyes Syndrome Research and the Saint Louis Association for Retarded Children.

SPORTS

Men show their characters in nothing more clearly than in what they think laughable.

There's nothing worth the wear of winning,
But laughter and the love of friends.
Laugh at yourself first,
before anyone else can.

Two barrels of tears will not heal a bruise.

And they hung their heads and their eyes had tears.

There are tears in misfortune.

Nothing is happiness which is not shared by at least one other,
and nothing is truly sorrow unless it is borne alone.

PROMOTE ENTHUSIASM

Captain T. Rahm cheers the celts to victory.

Captain L. Baechle gets the spirit moving.

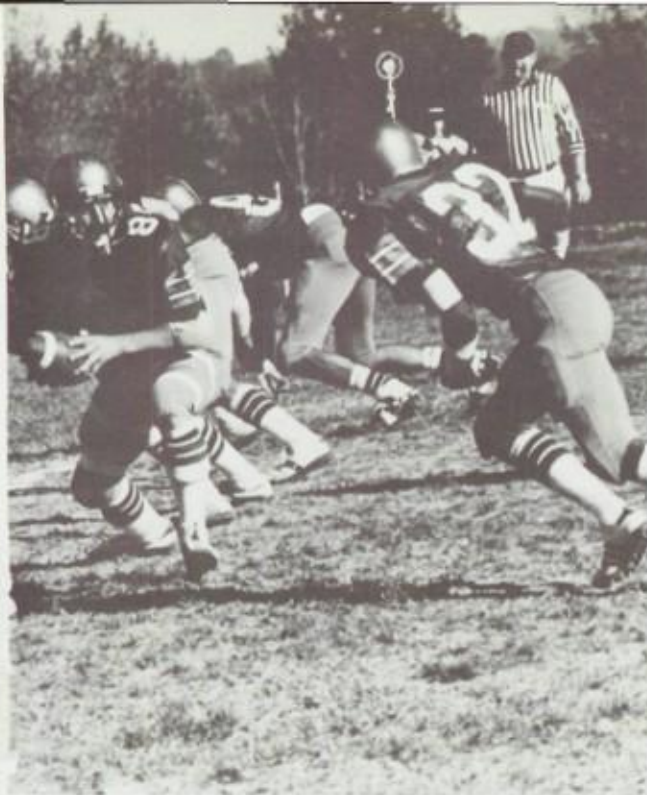

The members of the 1979-80 Varsity Cheerleading Squad began their season long before the opening game. The squad attended a week long camp at Southwest Missouri University. The Celts placed as one of the top three squads out of 1200 girls, and as the number one Missouri squad at camp. They returned from camp possessing not only blue ribbons and a spirit stick but lasting enthusiasm.

TENTH IN THE AREA

Captain J. Turney takes control.

All Conference Goalie M. Walter takes to offense.

The 1979 Soccer team captured the best year in Kennedy's history. After a slow start, the season's turning point came when M. Walter led the way with 4 consecutive shutouts. The Celts ended their season with a 11-9-1 record. The high point of the season occurred when the Celts upset 7th ranked DuBourg 2-0. By the end of the season the Celts were ranked 10th in the area. Individual honors were received by M. Walter, Hon. Mention All State, and J. Turney and M. Walter, 1st Team CAC.

BASKETBALL TEAM!

FIRST THE GOOD NEWS The celts were a hustling, hard working team, better than their 7-16 record indicated. Tim Costello was selected first team in the C.A.C., Mike Wright finished 8th in the conference in scoring, and Joe Douez finished 9th in scoring. The celts upset strong St. Marys, knocked off rival Chaminade and surprised tall Rosary.

THE BAD NEWS With a three game winning streak and a strong finish in sight, fast improving Tom Schmittgens broke his arm in the Prep South game. Two games later another starter Dave Koch received a bad sprain and was out for the season.

Captain J. Douez sinks a free throw.

T. Costello toys with Mercy.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT

Captain J. Bickhaus shoots for two.

All State Player T. Schmittgens controls the tip.

The Girl's Varsity Basketball team was labeled the "mystery" team by the Post Dispatch when the Celts upset two of the area's top rated teams, Rosati Kain and St. Joe's. At the end of the season, the Celts were tied for 4th place in the Catholic Girl's League and took second in their district tournament. Player T. Schmittgens was selected to the All State team as well as being the 3A leader in scoring and rebounding.

BEAT IWA AND URSULINE

The softball Celts finished with a 9-3 record in the league — an overall record of 11-6. They lost one game by 1 run — two games by 2 runs. The defense was led by freshmen Lesley Graczak and D. Cammarata, Sophomores C. Brewer and C. Kourik, and junior J. Koetting. This young infield was supported by outfielders L. Corsiglia, E. Fox and B. McCurry. The Bickhaus sisters did an excellent job on the mound. Offense was led by Jackie Bickhaus with .526, E. Fox with .400, D. Cammarata with .352, and L. Corsiglia with a .289 average. Lesley Graczak and J. Koetting stole 9 bases and D. Cammarata stole 8 bases. These young Celts will be impossible to beat next season.

The 1980 B-squad cheerleaders cheered for the B-team football, basketball, and soccer. During the past year, the squad attended an NCA one day clinic at Pattonville High School and an NCA spirit camp at Southwest Missouri State University to learn the latest cheers and chants. The squad brought home five ribbons and a Spirit Stick. The squad would like to congratulate all the teams and thank the parents and fans for all their support.

POM-PON BOOSTS

The 1979-80 Pom-Pon squad had 24 members consisting of girls from all four classes. The squad participated in the St. Louis Metropolitan Pom-Pon Association (MAPA).

This gave Kennedy an opportunity to compete with squads from all over the St. Louis area and to perform, along with other MAPA members, during half-time at a Cardinal football game. This year, senior Clars Hall was selected as Kennedy's Miss Drill Team.

1st row: M. Meyer, R. Niemann, P. Grass, S. Tursky, L. O'Niell, M. Menley. 2nd row: J. McNeal, N. O'Malley (capt.), B. Boedeker, D. Niemann, D. Niemann, A. Cain.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

1st row: S. Straussner, J. Tracey, A. Fisher, S. Bumb (capt.), L. Bumb, S. Smith. 2nd row: S. Hoff, D. Eppler, D. Gelner, M. Reilly, S. Betz, J. Julius, C. Hall.

Moderator Miss Rita Bergschneider

REFLECTIONS . . . SPORTS

There are some defeats more triumphant than victories (Montaigne)

At the game's end we shall see who gains. (G. Herbert)

In all times of our distress and in our triumphs too
the game is more than the player of the game and the ship is more than the crew. (R. Kipling)

For when the One Great Scorer comes to write against your name
He marks-not that you won or lost
But how you played the game. (G. Rice)

Winning is not the most important thing;
it's everything. (V. Lombardi)

ORGANIZATIONS

For when the heart is happy, there's just no time for tears.

The human race has one really effective weapon, and that is laughter.

Without love and laughter there is no joy, live amid love and laughter.

Tears are the noble language of the eye.

If you are afraid to cry; you'll never learn to laugh.

As men's faces smile on those who smile, so they respond to those who weep.

NHS

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to recognize those members of the Junior and Senior classes who have distinguished themselves not only in academic achievement but have demonstrated outstanding qualities of leadership, character and service to the school and community. Under the able leadership of this year's president, Sue Crump, and her three officers, the Society members assisted at College Night and cooperated with the Guidance Department by tutoring students.

The Society is especially grateful this year for a new plaque that was partially donated to them by the Student Council.

FACULTY

Man is distinguished from all other creatures by the facility of laughter.

Your laughter brings me joy.

The case will be dismissed without
laughter.

Men show their character in nothing more clearly than by what they think laughable.

We all need someone to kiss away our tears.

In any really good subject, one has only to probe deep enough to come to tears.

Let your eyes learn to drop tears at command.

Never a tear comes to the eye that time and patience will not dry.

Laughter is not at all a bad beginning for a friendship, and it is far the best ending for one.

The most completely lost of all days is that on which one has not laughed.

He deserves Paradise who makes his companions laugh.

In youth, one has tears without grief:
in age, griefs without tears.
Waste not fresh tears over old griefs.

For no one sheds a teardrop or suffers in vain. For God is always there to turn our losses into gain.

A flood of thoughts came over me that filled my eyes with tears

SENIORS

Do you recall the laughs?

I have asked to be left a few tears and some laughter.

He who laughs on Friday,
weeps on Sunday.

Time passes much too quickly when we're together laughing.

God shall wipe away all tears
from their eyes.

Tears are blessings,
let them flow.

Share with your friends the joys and sorrows,
the laughter and the tears.

The soul would have no rainbow,
Had the eyes no tears.

Thomas Henry Younger

"I would not exchange the laughter of my heart for the fortunes of the multitudes;
nor would I be content with converting my tears, invited by my agonized self,
into calm.

It is my fervent hope that my whole life
on this earth will ever be tears and laughter.

Tears that purify my heart and reveal to me the secret of life and its mystery, Laughter that brings me closer to my fellow men;
Tears with which I join
the broken-hearted, Laughter that symbolizes joy
over my existence."
